

Level 3 Award in Education & Training (replaces PTTLs).

This is a recognised QCF qualification for anyone who is interested in developing understanding and skills in delivering training or teaching sessions and those already in a role (volunteering or paid) that includes delivering teaching and learning

Learners will need to complete a series of assessment activities and will need to attend the taught sessions in order to gain knowledge and understanding and share experiences.

A named assessor will be on hand to give further guidance as well as the taught sessions which offer a wealth of information.

The qualification consists of three units:

Unit 01. Understanding roles, responsibilities and relationships in education and training

Unit 02. Understanding and using inclusive teaching and learning approaches in education and training This unit includes a micro-teaching session

Unit 03. Understanding assessment in education and training
